Workday Appoints Mike Stankey Vice Chairman; Promotes Mark Peek and Phil Wilmington to Co-Presidents

PLEASANTON, CA--(Marketwired - Jun 4, 2015) - Workday, Inc. (NYSE: WDAY), a leader in enterprise cloud applications for finance and human resources, today announced that Mike Stankey has been appointed vice chairman and has been elected to the Workday Board of Directors. In addition, Mark Peek and Phil Wilmington have each been promoted to co-president.

In his new role as vice chairman, Mike will focus on expansion into new markets, key customer relationships, external communications, and leadership development. Mark will continue to oversee finance and most aspects of the company's business operations, and Phil will continue to lead worldwide sales with new responsibility for customer services. Mike, Mark, and Phil report to Workday co-founder and CEO, Aneel Bhusri.

Comments on the News
"I am very excited to announce these leadership changes today," said Aneel Bhusri, co-founder and CEO of Workday. "With these moves, we are strengthening our management team and setting up to grow from our current revenue run rate of $1 billion to our next target of $3 billion and beyond. We continue to be the global leader for cloud HCM and look forward to gaining a similar position with Workday Financial Management, which is now ready for prime time. I'd like to congratulate Mike, Phil, and Mark on their new roles."
